Apehanger fuses the overdriven power of blues –and hard rock with southern influences. A tight rhythm section, a twin-lead guitar attack and Jeff’s powerful bluesy vocals define the band’s classic, yet contemporary sound.

Apehanger formed in May 2006, but since the summer of 2009 rocking in current killer line-up with (ex-)bandmembers from The Spades, Rene SG, RED and Weltmeister.

In 2010 they released their EP “A Place The Sun” and did shows in the Netherlands and Belgium, including Gideon Music Festival, Breda Barst and Prilpop.

In 2014, after a short period working on new material, they recorded five new killer tracks at the Amsterdam Recording Company (ARC) for their new EP “Tales Of Modern Men”, released in de beginning of 2015. With these songs they re-defined their sound and set the bar for the new material to be recorded in 2018.

Apehanger is:
